Tommy had been spanked by Miss Manners, his first-grade teacher, but his next teacher had not reached the point where she felt she could do justice to him in spite of all his naughtiness.

"Send him to me when you want him spanked," said Miss Manners one morning, after her colleague had related his lousy misdeeds.

"About 11 o'clock Tommy appeared at Miss Manners' door. She dropped her book, grasped him firmly by the hand, led him to the dressing room, turned him over her knee and administered punishment.

"When she had finished she said, 'Now, Tommy, what have you to say?'

"Please, miss, my teacher wants the scolders," was the unexpected reply.—Success Magazine.

BRYAN DEFEATED FOR THIRD TIME

Never Lost Hope Until He Lost
New York State.

Chairman Mack Had Not Communicated With Bryan Up to Late Hour—Was Comforted.

THEN MADE NO STATEMENT.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 1.—Bryan received at his home, "Fairview," the returns which early told him that for the third time he had been defeated in the greatest ambition of his life. Confident of victory to the very last he was not prepared to believe his cause was lost until the pluralities of his Republican opponent piled up in such proportions as to leave no room for doubt. When the early returns came in he made particular inquiries regarding New York and found much encouragement in the gains he was making up state over the Democratic vote in 1904, but as the figures continued to be received he relied on Greater New York in offset the heavy Taft vote above Harlem river. Even in that he was bitterly disappointed and he soon realized that the state was hopelessly gone, and with it his prospects of being elected.

According to the predictions of his managers he was led to believe that he would be elected without the aid of the Empire state and he turned his inquiries toward Ohio and Indiana. Heavy Democratic gains in the Thirteenth Ohio district was the source and to him indicated the probabilities that Ohio would go Democratic had been fulfilled. He also got much comfort out of the telegram from John E. Lamb, member of the advisory committee of Indiana, stating that indications were that Indiana probably would go Democratic and derived a good deal of satisfaction in the fact that his own precinct had given him a handsome majority and in the reports that he would again carry his own state.

After nearly three hours spent in his library Bryan came upstairs and talked to newspaper men and others who had assembled in the "work room." He read some further returns but they told the same story of defeat and he announced that he would not make any statement.

While a number of Democratic leaders from all over the country communicated with the candidate by telegraph the absence of any word up to a late hour from Chairman Mack was the subject of comment.

Mrs. Leavitt, Bryan's eldest daughter, would not concede that her father had lost his fight and remained up until a late hour believing more favorable news would be forthcoming.

Taft Congratulated.
Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—Taft, surrounded by a party of relatives and close friends received the returns at the residence of his brother. The party was very joyous and their enthusiasm increased as the favorable news increased and it was finally shown that the judge would be elected. Later in the night congratulatory telegrams pouring in from all parts of the country and many messages in response were sent by Taft. One of the earlier messages was this from Daniel J. Keefe: "Congratulations on the splendid victory. Labor voters appreciate and recognize their real friends."

Makes Brief Speech.
Later in the night responding to the congratulations of his neighbors, Taft made a brief speech in which he said the election had been a most important one and hoped and believed it would prove to be wholly in the interest of the whole country in promoting the return of prosperity. He said the result showed that "not only the business men but the laboring men, wage earners and farmers, have had confidence in the Republican party and the Republican ticket. It indicates that they would be independent and would not be controlled by any leader who might propose to deliver them to one party or another." He concluded with the pledge "that all the energy and ability that in me lies shall be used to make the next administration a worthy successor of that of Theodore Roosevelt, and beyond that I claim nothing higher."

Roosevelt Elated.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—President Roosevelt was greatly elated when he saw by the election bulletin which reached the white house that the man who will succeed him to the presidency is William Howard Taft, for whose election he has striven so hard, and that the Republican party had achieved a sweeping victory. The president spent a short while in his office and then went back to the white house to be with his guests who included cabinet members and assistant secretaries now in town and their wives, and Generals Bell and Edwards. He went back and forth a number of times during the evening and it was not until a late hour that he retired for the night.

Shortly before midnight he made public telegrams of congratulations which he had sent to President-elect Taft, Vice President-elect Sherman, Governor Hughes, Republican National Chairman Hitchcock and Congressional Committee Chairman Loudenslager.

THEater . . . Keeping Up
Florence Gear.

Florence Gear, Jules Murry's singing comedienne, who, supported by a large singing company, will be seen in "Marrying Mary" at the Kentucky on Tuesday, November 10, has an exuberant personality. Perhaps the most characteristic individual part of her work is that in which she has given her invention full swing and allowed her humor to play its maddest pranks at will. In some of her scenes as Mary Montgomery she seems enveloped in an atmosphere. Instead with gaiety and folly, where burlesque is natural and only the extravagant is unusual. Again she is finer, stronger, sinner. Nothing in her work is peculiar or superfluous. There are times when it has a touch of the pathetic. Her imagination is never inferior in kind nor poverty stricken in degree. She never fails to completely and logically develop the points she wishes to make. At her happiest she has the gift of laughter, at her dearest and truest the most precious gift of tears.

Tim Murphy.

Mr. Tim Murphy has had some varied experiences with advance agents. On one occasion the agent overdraw the company's bank account. Mr. Murphy was mortified beyond expression for such a thing had never happened to him before, and he wrote the agent a strong letter. Two weeks later the agent did it again. Then Mr. Murphy telegraphed him: "Overdrawn account again. Aren't you ashamed of yourself?" Just as the curtain rose that night a messenger boy brought this dispatch from the agent: "Yes, I acknowledge it was not all to my credit." But that apology didn't go.

HOW IT MIGHT HAPPEN. V.

Here is a catastrophe that would not happen if drivers of vehicles would not drive rapidly out of a cross street and across the tracks. A driver was asked once what he did all day. "Sometimes I sit on the seat and think" he said "and sometimes I just SIT." Caution your driver to think—and listen and look—and go slow—when he comes out of a cross street to go over the car tracks.

Next Mistress of the White House.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—No woman ever called upon to fill the difficult and exacting position of mistress of the white house was better prepared and equipped for her task than is Mrs. Helen H. Taft, the wife of President-elect Taft. She is a woman of culture and refinement and of many accomplishments, possesses unusual tact, social finish and, above all, a large measure of sound common sense. For a number of years she has lived in Washington as one of the most distinguished women of the official circle and the training which she received during that time will, undoubtedly, prove of great value to her as mistress of the white house.

Personally Mrs. Taft is quite as attractive as she is from an intellectual point of view. She is fair, slender and girlish looking and no one would suspect from her appearance that she has a son old enough to be in college. She is frank and vivacious, unpretentious, and yet possessed of marked dignity of bearing and the self-possession necessary to a woman in her exalted position. She is always cordial in rare accomplishment among society women, and possesses an excellent memory for persons and names, an invaluable gift for the wife of a political leader.

The new mistress of the white house was Miss Helen Herron, daughter of the law partner of the late President Hayes, when she married William H. Taft in Cincinnati, in 1886. She was a bright and talented girl with a perfect passion for music. In addition to a good education she received an excellent training in music and through all her future life music has ever been her favorite recreation. She is not only an accomplished pianist, but possesses a thorough knowledge of the theory of music and an extensive acquaintance with the best works of musical literature. But, notwithstanding her great love of music and her ardent devotion to it, she has never allowed it to become an all-absorbing passion, or even a tad to the extent of interfering with her duties to her husband and her family.

Although, probably, better equipped for her position than any woman women holding important positions in American society, Mrs. Taft is by no means a typical "society woman." For that she is too intelligent, sensible and well balanced. Ever since her husband entered official life in Washington and even before that, when he was still holding a judge'ship in Ohio, Mrs. Taft has made it her study and aim to fill to the best of her ability the position in society to which she was entitled by virtue of her husband's official rank. Her natural talent and the intellectual training of her girlhood days made the task easier for her and her labor tact helped her to avoid the pitfalls so disastrous to inexperienced and but indifferently equipped women in official society.

Nowhere is the new mistress of the white house seen to greater advantage than in her home circle, the supreme test for the sterling qualities of any woman, no matter what her position in society. She is devoted to her husband and her children, takes interest in everything pertaining to her domestic establishment and is considered a model housekeeper.

OPENED IN REEF-FOOT NIGHT
RIDER INVESTIGATION.

War to End Will Be Effort of Attorneys to Release Men on Indemnity Corpus Writs.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Attorney-General Caldwell states it will be way to the end when the attempt is made to free Watson and Marshall by habeas corpus proceedings. It was generally believed Watson might be freed, as he was a ment in Lake county and out under $5,000 bond, but the attorney general says he will hold him along with the rest.

Watson and Marshall will be on hand, according to present plans, and will come over from Camp Nemo under military guard.

Some of the warrants which are being issued were given to officers to be served Tuesday. Gen. Caldwell said he would utilize civil and military officials in serving them.

"We recognize the military as an arm of the civil authority, working with and under us," he said, "and will use them wherever we can."

It is understood that the soldiers will serve warrants on the prisoners in Camp Nemo and others they can reach and that Sheriff Eastwood and deputies will serve others. It was stated Tuesday that some of these warrants for the ringleaders have been sworn out some time and held for an emergency.

prisoners under guard of the military as much under civil arrest as if in the county jail.

The coteries of lawyers working up evidence in Union City have secured startling information the past two days, and one witness Monday is reported to have opened a new lead in the investigation. Witnesses are coming in daily to Union City, and telling what they know. A number of big surprises will be sprung at the trials, it is said.

"The spirit of your wife is here," said the medium in sepulchral tones. "That so? Well, just ask her where she put the recipe for the liniment I rub my shoulders with."

Commission.

Washington, Nov. 4.—A large part of President Roosevelt's final annual message to congress was dictated today. It is being written, as it was stated at the white house, as if the president were going to continue in office for another four years. It is to be full of vim and vigor. Every live topic heretofore mentioned in messages again will be fully treated.

recommended are more power for the interstate commerce commission, the insertion of the word "reasonable" in the anti-trust law, so that it will forbid only unreasonable restraints of commerce, between states, conservation of the forests and tariff revision, the latter because the platform pledged the party to it.

The idea underlying the message thus far written is that Taft is to carry forward the policies of the outgoing administration.

Some men put everything off till tomorrow with the exception of bill collectors, and they put them off indefinitely.

Daily Thought.

He who knows most grieves most for wasted time.—Danie.

The people rule; now let prosperity reign.

Some votes must have spilled out of Mr. Gompers' vest pocket.

Mr. Roosevelt, not only is a great statesman; but he is a politician of some note.

Also Mr. Hitchcock.

Mr. Bryan is a delightful Chautauqua.

And to think of some of those states we considered doubtful yesterday.

Maybe tomorrow we can talk of something else.

Mr. Walter Wellman, the eminent arctic explorer and authority on aerostatics, at least gauged the gullibility of the Democratic press. Mr. Wellman's predictions cost his admirers considerable money.

THE NATIONAL ELECTION.

It is always easy after an election to tell how it happened. Concisely it might be attributed to the good hard common sense of the American people, which Mark Hanna discovered, and to which men like Taft and Hughes, and Folk, and Wilson appeal successfully. Again it might be stated that Mr. Bryan has the third time fallen victim to a "paramount issue"—two of them this time. Early in the campaign Mr. Bryan promulgated the catch phrase, "shall the people rule," to start a tidal wave. Intentionally his platform proposed a bank guaranty to appeal to the farmer vote and the emancipation of the judiciary as a sop to union labor. He intended these merely as side issues to carry class favor; but before the campaign had progressed far, they became the paramount issues, and the selfish instincts to which Mr. Bryan himself appealed, actually retarded and overwhelmed him before October was well spent.

This was accomplished as it always has been accomplished in a Bryan campaign. The Republican organization remained quiet until Mr. Bryan had stamped the country and spoken to every issue, and then Taft and Hughes were sent out after him and confounded him with the ultimate logic of his own arguments.

Mr. Bryan told the prosperous farmers that he would assure all the banks to guaranty the deposits in all of them. He told the laboring men that he favored trial by jury for contempt of a court's order, when the contempt was not committed actually in the presence of the court. The first proposition was quickly shown to be a scheme that would militate to the advantage of speculating banks at the expense of sound institutions. The attack on the courts was more technical and obscure, and its danger was latent—anyone else as well as strikers—to violate the injunction and then appeal to a jury instead of being presented before the court for punishment. The result would be to make it impossible for a court to enforce its own orders, when public sentiment in a community was inflamed sufficiently to intimidate a jury.

But Mr. Bryan overreached himself. He saw the Republicans divided on the question of tariff revision, and in the hopes of confusing revision with tariff reduction, but still leaning to what he considered conservatism, he announced his policy of a gradual reduction of the tariff. That lowered the clouds of industrial depression over the situation, the business world took fright, the farmer, who was prospering, foresaw that prices might break and he wouldn't have any money to put in the bank, in which case the guaranty of deposits would be of little moment; and the steel and iron and pottery workers of the middle western states foresaw the loss of their wages and the lack of anything to strike for, so the injunction lost its interest to them.

The campaign itself developed some peculiar alliances. Organized labor, so far as it participated as an organization under Samuel Gompers, supported Bryan. That was a new role for labor. The Republican party has always been distinctively the party of labor. It was born to that mission. In its infancy it stood for the freedom of labor; for as long as slavery exists in any form in any considerable part of a country, manual labor is debased and the free laborer is affected by the conditions imposed. The party as soon as it came into power adopted the principle of the protective tariff, which, if it has any merit in it, is designed to prevent the competition of pauper European labor in American markets, and make possible conditions under which the American working man may work out his own ends. Since then with the development of the national conscience and the progress of humanitarian principles the party has enacted the child labor law, the eight hour law, the employers' liability law, the railroad equipment law and several others intended to ameliorate the conditions under which men toil.

Mr. Taft, who as federal judge had interpreted a great deal of the law relating to labor unions, was designated as the enemy of labor, when really he instituted the practice of requiring reasonable notice before injunctions in labor cases, recognized the right of labor to organize, to strike and to create a strike fund. The last word of Mr. Taft before the election was a promise to labor not to be prejudiced by the abuse of Gompers, but to advocate certain reforms in labor's behalf.

Then while much of Bryan's campaign was devoted to an attack on banks and the courts, another strange thing happened. An appeal was made to the colored vote, and that appeal emanated from the leading organ of southern Democracy, the Courier-Journal. And more eloquently significant still is the fact that the appeal was not based upon proposals for the elevation of the colored race, or in the interests of racial harmony. President Roosevelt saw fit to discharge a whole battalion of colored troops, because they conspired to hide the identity of some of their number who shot into white homes at Brownsville, Texas, and the Courier-Journal, through its editor, Mr. Waterson, whose words were echoed by the entire Democratic press, begged the negroes to desert the Republican party, because they argued that the Republican president did wrong in not shielding those assassins. He it said to the credit of the colored voters, they were proof against this appeal.

It was expected that the classes, whose prejudices were appealed to, would make great inroads on the Republican vote, in communities where they were most in evidence, and for that reason even Republican papers expected early returns to be unfavorable. However, it did not work, and the Democratic party again went down in defeat.

THE LOCAL RESULTS.

The local results, while they may dampen the enthusiasm of Republicans, are attributable to causes easily seen. The chief one is the Democratic primary, which brought out the party vote, and the intimidation practiced to make men vote the Democratic ticket before taking part in it. Many men, who thought Kentucky's electoral vote would cut no figure, anyway, in the national election, were willing to forego an expression of their principles on those issues, in order to express a choice for county officials.

Then, too, the Republicans had no money with which to get out their vote, and the ballot was so big, there was little scratching. The primary simply overshadowed the city election, and there was no issue, excepting the personalities of the candidates, and these did not obtrude on the situation sufficiently to produce a noticeable effect on the result. Straight tickets were the rule and counsellors and advertisement tickets went through with little difference in the results, following the heads of the ticket.

THE SCHOOL SITUATION.
The defeat of the school bond issue was foreshadowed in public sentiment. It will confuse the plans of the trustees for the improvement of the schools, but the asking the city schools got can do no harm, and the friends, who so bravely came to the front in this fight, should not permit the school to lose any of the advantage gained.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

favor of a bond issue, but deploring the idea of devoting the proceeds to building bonds to the payment of a floating debt, however incurred. Eventually, however, The Sun foresaw the possibility that if the bond issue was defeated and the city failed to add the schools, The Sun might be censured for causing the schools to close, and accepted the bond issue proposition as the best way out of a bad situation.

Now, all that is past. A new general council of opposite political affiliation from that of the administration, will levy the next tax. We can not speak for it, although we believe it will co-operate with Mayor Smith in every good effort in behalf of the city. Mayor Smith has never shown a partisan disposition in the conduct of office, and we believe his spirit will be reciprocated.

Of course, every cent spent by the city in relieving the distress of the city schools will interfere with the plans of Mayor Smith to pay off the city's floating debt, and reduce taxes and put the city on a business basis; but the same people pay for the schools, and they are for the good of the city, and we believe that Mayor Smith will lead whatever influence he may have with the general council to relieve the public schools. He can do nothing himself. That matter rests with the general council, and we hope that the council and the administration will work together to this end.

NATIONAL RESULTS

Indiana Results.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—Three statements will be out of jobs March 4 as the result of the election. Vice President Fairbanks will retire and Watson, the defeated Republican candidate for governor, will retire from congress. Democrats apparently captured the legislature and will elect a successor to Senator Tiernan.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—On private returns to himself Tom Taggart declared Democrats carried the legislature safely and secured eight congressmen. They held two.

Illinois Results.

Springfield, Nov. 4.—Taft's plurality in Illinois is at least 150,000, and perhaps 200,000. Donnell is elected governor by 50,000. Cannon increased his majority in seeking reelection. The Republicans have a legislative majority that insures the reelection of Senator Hopkins.

Ohio Election.

Columbus, Nov. 4.—The state result in Ohio is doubtful. While Taft received at least 50,000 majority Democrats claim that much for Harrison for governor.

Overstreet and F. T. Felt, the latter a close friend of Taft and is regarded as sure to have secured the support in carrying the state.

Kansas Republican.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Only the size of the Republican majority is in doubt. Returns are coming in slowly. They indicate Taft has 25,000 plurality and Stubbs, for governor, 15,000. Eight Republican congressmen were elected and the legislature is republican by 35 on joint ballot. They will elect first two senators.

Oklahoma Democratic.

Bethesda, Okla., Nov. 4.—Returns are very slow. Late reports are cutting down Bryan's majority. It probably will be about 20,000. McFarlane was elected to congress in the First district. The rest are Democratic.

Socialist Vote.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—There was a decrease in the Socialist vote. It fell from 27,000 in 1901, to 15,000. The Socialists attribute this to efforts to get the laboring men to vote the Democratic ticket. Reports from southern states indicate Socialists have increased their vote in Arkansas and greatly reduced the Democratic vote in Oklahoma.

Nick Is Elected.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—The latest returns from Hamilton county give Taft 12,000 majority and Harrison 16,000. Longworth wins by 5,000. The colleague, Goshel is apparently beaten.

In Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Republican Chairman Dole says today that the legislature is in doubt. Democrats may gain a senator.

In Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Pending complete returns the Republican can count on a victory to come to a victory. The state figures indicate a Democratic plurality of less than 2,000. Republican claim that complete returns are necessary.

New Mexico Republican.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 4.—The result of the state is Republican, as the majority is from New Mexico. The result is Republican by a majority of 2,000.

Utah Republican.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 4.—Taft's victory is a majority 20,000. The Republican state ticket is elected and the legislature is Republican. The result will be returned to the state.

Testing of Their Begins.

New York, Nov. 4.—Bryan's poor showing in New York City is laid at the door of Tammany. It is reported that Murphy called Bryan to save himself. His attempt failed. No one was an account for Bryan. The loss of the election was due to the loss of many votes. The loss is estimated at 25,000. Bryan's friends say it is the campaign against Murphy of preparing to sacrifice Bryan for Chamber. The returns indicate the failure of the charge.

Hoddy Wins.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—After the returns from the state in the Republican column without a doubt. The result at Kansas City exceeds his defeat at St. Louis, St. Paul and St. Paul.

It was a most successful vote to settle the issue. The result is Republican by a majority of 20,000. The result is Republican by a majority of 20,000.

Some Bright Spots.
New York, Nov. 4.—Indiana, Minnesota, Michigan and North Dakota are bright spots to the Democrats. All elected Democratic governors, who's giving Taft the electoral vote. Other predicted Democratic state victories failed to materialize. Hughes was defeated by about 5,000 in New York. Nebraska elected Shaw, a Republican. Democrats in Michigan both sides claim the governor, and it may require the official vote to decide.

Johnson Wins.
St. Paul, Nov. 4.—Johnson, Democrat, was re-elected governor by a greatly reduced majority. The returns indicate Johnson has a thin plurality. Taft carried the state approximately by 10,000.

Taft Speaks.
Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—Taft retired at 2 o'clock and came at nearly noon. This afternoon he addressed a crowd at the laying of the cornerstone of the new High School. He is scheduled for several speeches in the near future.

Carl Wells Dies.
Carl Wells, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wells, 1314 Third street, died at 8 o'clock this morning of diphtheria. Carl had been ill just a short time. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The burial will be at Oak Grove cemetery.

The death of Carl Wells this morning of diphtheria brings the total to five deaths in less than a month from diphtheria, out of fourteen cases during that time in this city. The death rate per cent is large and the majority of diphtheria cases are in the neighborhood of the two school buildings, which are in an unsanitary condition on account of not being connected with the sewer.

A woman should not have a bad

Here is a Paducah woman who endorses this claim:
Mrs. R. E. Whitner, of 820 South
Sixth street, Paducah, Ky., says:
"For years I was a sufferer from kidney trouble. At times my back was so lame that I was unable to get around the house. I doctored and received very little benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Dullola, Son & Co.'s drug store. I took them as directed and the results were very satisfactory. I certainly believe that I would have the additional advantage of giving the president an opportunity to plan

session of congress and for the extra session that is to be called after March 4 next. The two leaders would be free from interruptions or

EXPERIMENT IN HIGH FINANCEWoman Secures $20,000
Worth of Bonds.

Was Captured as She Was About to Leave, and Gave Up the Bonds.

NEARLY MADE HER ESCAPE.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—With $20,000 of bonds which she had obtained from the firm of Babcock, Rushton & Lou-derbach, bond dealers, in the looking building, a woman known as Alice Cheney Brown, was arrested last night at the Union depot and made to return the securities.

She had a ticket for Denver, and was aboard the train waiting for its departure when Detective Frank Itpetto found her preparing to retire
for the night.

Itpetto's instructions from the brokers were not to detain the woman if she restored the $20,000 worth of bonds. This she readily assented to, and she took them from a handbag
on the seat beside her.

The woman had also passed a worthless check for $63 on the management of the Congress hotel company. Detective Itpetto, who is employed by the hotel company, had this little score to settle with the woman.
She made good the amount of the check and was allowed to go her way.

How She Did the Work.

The method by which the woman obtained the bonds was by passing a worthless check on the brokers for $19,720. Soon after the transaction
Orville E. Babcock, one of the firm, became suspicious of the genuineness
of the check and telegraphed to the Farmers' Loan and Trust company,
of New York, on which bank it was drawn. An answer was received that the woman had no account with the Farmers' Loan and Trust company.
It was known to the brokerage firm that Mrs. Brown was staying at the Annex, and a messenger was sent there to find her. At the hotel it was learned that the woman had paid her bill and left. She had paid with a check on the Farmers' Loan and Trust company, and had ordered a carriage to take her to the La Salle station.

Manager Southgate, of the Annex,
examined the check passed on the hotel, and inasmuch as the check of the brokerage firm was worthless, he declared that the smaller one was worthless, too.

Detective Itpetto was called in,
and with Mr. Babcock went to the municipal court, where a warrant was sworn out charging the woman with operating a confidence game.

Clunged Her Cabs.

The cabman who drove the woman
from the Annex was found, and he said she discharged him at the La Salle street station. It was learned that a woman answering the description of Mrs. Brown had engaged another cabman and that he drove her to the Northwestern depot. After discharging the second cabman, she entered a third vehicle and was driven to the Union depot.

In the baggage room it was discovered that the woman had checked
a suit case to Denver, presenting her railroad ticket at the time. The Burlington train for Denver did not leave Chicago until 11:30 o'clock, and Itpetto remained in the depot until shortly before the time of its departure. How the woman got past him and aboard the train without being seen is a mystery to the detective.

When questioned on that point by Itpetto she looked out of the car window and laughed.

At first Mrs. Brown pleaded for leniency, asking that she be permitted to pay the hotel bill and continue her trip to Denver. The detective agreed to accept the $63 for the hotel bill, and she paid him in cash.

When she turned over the bonds,
which she did so, she told said cabs
that she had planned to obtain the bonds which she hoped to sell in Denver so she could get funds with which to aid a brother who is under arrest
in the case for some offense.

No Effort to Prosecute.

The securities were turned over to Mr. Babcock, who was waiting for Itpetto at the Auditorium Annex.
Mr. Babcock said the firm would make no effort to prosecute Mrs. Brown.

The bonds were twenty in number of $1,000 each. They were first mortgage 5 per cent. bonds on the Madison River Power company.

Mrs. "Brown" went to the Annex
last Thursday, she registered as "Mrs.
Frank E. Brown, New York." The day following her arrival she called on Babcock, Rushton & Louderbach with letters, presumably forged, purporting to be from a New York broker. Negotiations were begun for the purchase of the bonds, but the deal
was not closed until yesterday.

It was learned after the Denver train had departed that Mrs. Brown got through the station without being seen by Itpetto by a clever ruse.
Outside the station she saw a third woman holding a baby and engaged her in conversation. Without arousing the woman's suspicions she induced her to let Mrs. Brown hold her baby and then accompany the child
and its new friend to the train.

In passing through the depot Mrs. Brown was seemingly intent on the child and as she was not supposed to have been seen.

EASILY OVERCOMES
STOMACH TROUBLEStops Food Fermenting and Relieves Dyspepsia in Five Minutes.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent
case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Tinsule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble
is Food Fermentation—food souring;
the digestive organs become weak,
there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite,
pressure and fullness after eating,
vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping
in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness,
belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation
of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take some Diapepsin.

London, Nov. 4.—It became evident today that the plan of campaign for ending the Boer war, which was drawn up by Emperor William and sent to Queen Victoria, according to the interview with his majesty that appeared last week in the Daily Telegraph was not communicated to the British war office.

This matter has aroused the ire of the Irishmen, who affect to see therein an attempt to rob their fellow countryman, Lord Roberts, of the glory attached to his success, and William Redmond, the nationalist, heckled War Secretary Haldane on the subject in the house of commons.

War Plan Not Seen.
The secretary replied that the archives of the war office contained no such document and that he could find no record of its ever having been in the possession of anybody connected with the department.

Mr. Redmond wound up his questions by suggesting that Mr. Haldane propose to Premier Asquith the proprietor of offering Emperor William a seat in the British cabinet, thereby making the situation regular.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BIRTH OF DOWAGER.Greatest Day of Festivities in Honor of the Visiting American Battleships.

Anoy, China, Nov. 4.—The seventy-fourth anniversary of the birth of the dowager empress of China was celebrated today and the event was made the greatest day of the festivities in honor of the visiting battleships under Rear Admiral Empory.
There was a reception on board the Chinese cruiser Ha Chi at 11 o'clock in the morning and another reception
on shore at the Nan Pu Tou Miao temple at noon. A national salute was fired at noon in honor of the empress' birthday by all the warships in the harbor, which total fourteen.

Drunk Toast.
At the reception around no toasts were proposed until the company had officially adjourned. Then Prince Yu Lang proposed the health of the empress dowager. All the sailors and officers present, as well as the other guests of the government, Chinese and foreign, joined in the cheers and drank to the toast. At the same time there was a parademonium of firecrackers and fireworks on all sides.

Thousand men went ashore
from the battleships during the day.
The cutter and gig boats went to crowd from the Louisiana and the baseball nine from this vessel defeated the Wisconsin team 14 to 0. The hundred yards dash was won by a man from the supply ship Cincinnati, while second honors went to the Kentucky and third to the Ohio. In the running broad jump a man from the Virginia won, the Kentucky entrant was second and Missouri third.
The high jump went to the Missouri,
while the Virginia second and the Kentucky third. In the tug of war the third division defeated the fourth division.
Prince Yu Lang congratulated the winners in person.

A Chinaman detected in selling spurious gold ornaments to men of the fleet was summarily punished and ordered to refund all the money he had taken in. The strict rules were slightly relaxed, and more Chinese were allowed to enter the reception grounds.

come strong. He says: "My mother who is old and was very feeble, is living so much better from Electrics, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. My mother's case is a marked gain

coming stronger." Electric

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the people of our city have been led to purchase so-called remedies from which they have received no benefit whatever, and having thus wasted so much hard-earned money, it has come to pass that they know not what to believe.

Inasmuch as this unsatisfactory state of affairs exists, KNOW, THEREFORE, ALL PERSONS who are in need of such a medicine that we will supply them with VINOL on a POSITIVE GUARANTEE that if it does not succeed in benefiting them we will refund
the entire amount of money paid us for it.

There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but there are some we know to be honest, reliable, and of great curative value. Such is VINOL; it is not a secret medicine,—just peptonate of iron, wine, and all the curative extractives of cod liver oil, combined. We are familiar with every particle of it, and KNOW that it should benefit every one who uses it.

Could any offer be more fair than this? You are ill;
we offer you medicine which we believe will help you,
and if it does not we will return your money. Is there anyone foolish enough not to accept this offer? You owe it to your family, to your friends, and yourself to try this medicine which we give you our pledge is a genuine cod liver and iron preparation of great merit.

We unhesitatingly recommend Vinol as a Body
Builder and Strength Creator for Feeble Old People, Delicate Children, Frail Women, All Run Down
Persons, and Those Needing a Good Tonic after the Grippe or any Severe Illness, and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.

Do you think we could afford to lend our name to its praises, as we have been doing in the newspapers, if we did not know VINOL to be an honest and unusually valuable remedy for the ills for which it is prescribed?
We certainly could not; we therefore ask you, our neighbors, friends and acquaintances to accept our assurances that this is a genuine offer, and that any and all persons who need a medicine of this character should feel a sense of security in accepting it.

You will absolutely be under no obligation to us whatever, if after you have tried one bottle of VINOL, and have not received any benefit, you have only to tell us so, and we will return the entire amount of money you paid us for it.

VINOL is an old and valuable remedy improved by modern science—tastes good and agrees with every one.

Call and get a bottle today. You won't be sorry.

HARRIMAN SILENCE UP TO HIGH COURT

U. S. Supreme Bench to Decide if Magnate Must Answer.

Arguments on Rail Company's Right to Speculate Likely to Begin.

NOTED LEGAL FIGHT DUE.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—The Justices of the United States supreme court are to be regaled with arguments by noted attorneys this week concerning the famous case wherein E. H. Harriman refused to divulge information concerning stock transactions of the Union Pacific railroad company and the alleged speculation of its president and directors. Should the case be called on election day, and it now appears that it will fall on that date, such citizens as ex-Senator John C. Spooner, John G. Aldrich, Robert S. Lovett, Walker D. Hines, Paul H. Thrasher, C. A. Severance and Frank H. Kellogg, members of counsel for both Mr. Harriman and the government, will use their chance to vote.

Important Law Points Involved. Messrs. Severance and Kellogg, the latter known as the administrator "Trust Buster," and assistant to the attorney general, will present the case on behalf of the government, which seeks to compel Mr. Harriman to answer questions put to him during the investigation by the interstate commerce commission into the financial affairs of the Union Pacific during the winter of 1906. The other attorneys mentioned are gathering in Washington to fight for the interests of Mr. Harriman.

Arguments in the case promise an exposition of some fine points which involve an interpretation of an important part of the law under which the interstate commerce commission is operating. The final disposition of the matter, which already has been decided in favor of the government's contention by the circuit court of appeals at New York, will settle some hotly argued issues in regard to the power of the interstate commerce commission when it comes to investigating financial operations and internal management of an interstate commerce carrier.

Say Rail Company Can Speculate.

In this instance it is asserted by Mr. Harriman's counsel that the government has no right to go into these matters and that whatever speculative dealing its officers may enter into does not pertain to interstate commerce. They maintain, practically, that a railway corporation organized under the laws of a state, although engaged in interstate commerce, can speculate.

The government counsel will argue that congress has the right to provide against railroad insolvency by requiring regular reports concerning a railway's financial condition and may prevent railway companies from buying stocks.

The interstate commerce commission started an investigation into the control of railways by the Union Pacific, its purchase of stock of various

FOR PIMPLES, TOO, New Discovery Cures Eczema and Evidences Minor Skin Troubles overnight.

A few months ago the dispensers of Poslam, the new discovery for the cure of eczema, decided to allow the druggists of the country to handle it, previous to that time it could only be obtained direct from the laboratories.

Since this change in the method of distribution, Poslam has met with the most phenomenal success of anything introduced to the drug trade in the last 30 years. All leading druggists, including Gilbert's in Paducah, are now carrying the special 50-cent size recently adopted, also the $2 jar.

This great success is not surprising when it is remembered that, in eczema cases, Poslam stops the itching with first application, proceeds to heal immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. In minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, acne, herpes, blotches, rash, etc., results show after an overnight application. Experimental samples of Poslam are sent to anyone by mail free of charge, by the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

other ones, and the effect of this ointment upon its transportation rates. When asked what price had been paid for Illinois Central stock before its sale to the Union Pacific Mr. Harriman declined to answer.

Other Questions Still Unanswered. He also declined to answer questions as to his previous purchase and sale to himself, as president of the Union Pacific, of stocks of the Chicago and Alton, St. Joseph and Grand Island, New York Central, Lake Shore, and other lines.

Another set of questions was fired at Mr. Harriman concerning the interests of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific dividends and the alleged conspiracy of Union Pacific officials to keep the price a secret from the other stockholders until the officials had secured themselves with stock of these roads for speculative purposes.

Mr. Harriman refused to answer the questions and the entire matter was then carried before the United States circuit court of appeals at New York. Justice Hough of that court decided that "Mr. Harriman must answer the questions put to him. Mr. Harriman appealed to the United States supreme court. He will be required to answer if the decision of the United States court of appeals at New York is affirmed.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 28 Highland Ave., Houston, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough ever since winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SOUTHERN TRIP

CHICAGO WILL ALLOW BUSINESS MEN TO MEET.

Delegation Has Arranged for Extensive Trip Through Towns in South.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The proposed "Southern Trades Extension Trip" to be made by a delegation of Chicago business and professional men, under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce, for the purpose of encouraging closer social relations between two important sections of the country, will be a great success, judging from the spirit in which the enterprise is being undertaken.

This is not to be an ordinary trip, but is intended to afford a first-class opportunity for the business men of the two sections. Chicago and the south, to get together on the basis of American fellowship. Men who have shaken one another's hands, it is argued, can do more satisfactorily, than men whose intercourse has been confined to pen and paper.

Extensive Itinerary.

The delegation will leave Chicago by special train November 8, covering the important towns in Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana. They will reach Chicago on their return trip on November 22. Aside from representatives from the leading jobbing and manufacturing interests in this city, the party will include one of the representatives of the University of Chicago, a prominent member of the Chicago board of trade and representatives of the press.

The Chicago Association of Commerce intends to make this trip a genuine success from start to finish. The train which is to carry the party will be equipped with all of the necessities of traveling life and not a few of its luxuries.

The delegates are requested to attend a meeting of the ways and means committee, to be held Wednesday. This meeting will be addressed by Richard C. Hall, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce; Edward H. Skinner, chairman of the executive committee; John W. Scott, chairman of the trade extension committee, and Harry A. Wheeler, chairman of the ways and means committee.

BIG WAREHOUSES FALL INTO MISSISSIPPI RIVER.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—A special to the Republic from Pine Bluff, Ark., says: Two large bale cotton warehouses owned by R. M. Knox and D. S. Henderson tumbled into the Arkansas river, following the continuous caving in of the banks.

Hotel Jefferson and Jefferson county court house are in danger of falling within the next forty-eight hours. The river continues to eat its way into the heart of the business district. Hundreds of trees are being cut at the water's edge without effect. A large plantation on the north side of the river is gradually disappearing.

Seeking to Serve Summons in Night
Rider Suit on Him in Lyon County.

THE HENRY BENNETT ACTION.

Most of the alleged night rider defendants in the Bennett suit have been found by Elwood Neel, deputy United States marshal, and the summons served on them. It was known many weeks before that the suit would be filed, and was no surprise to the defendants. Marshal Neel returned to Lyon, Trigg and Caldwell counties this morning to serve the remainder of the papers. He returned Monday night in order to vote yesterday.

All efforts to locate Dr. D. A. Amoss, alleged to be the night rider general, and one of the defendants in the Bennett suit, have failed, but the search for him has not been let up. Monday morning at 1 o'clock Marshal Neel, accompanied by Captain Carl Henderson and a few soldiers called at Dr. Amoss' home at Colb and searched it from attic to cellar, but nothing was learned. None of the family was at home and the tenant in charge of the house denied knowing where any member of the family was. On the hall table an envelope was found with Dr. Amoss' name written on it, but the writer had failed to write any postoffice address.

A MAN'S wardrobe is never complete without a handsome black suit, and certainly not this season without one of these new, ditty, stylish, and yet conservative black suits that we have just received. The coat has the new style long roll collar, with the edge neatly braided, and the new envelope pocket. Trousers are full p-g-leg with lap-over seam, and the workmanship is unequalled in any thirty dollar garment you can find.
